

QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE for obtaining WORK PERMITS

All students under the age of 18 who wish to be employed must have a work permit.

Students enrolled at Lakewood High School who desire to work part time must obtain a work permit from the Main Office. All other work permits are issued from the Department of Student Services located at the Board of Education.

Carefully review the accompanying APPLICATION FOR MINOR WORK PERMIT and PHYSICIAN'S CERTIFICATE FOR MINOR WORK PERMIT.

The student is responsible for completing the forms by securing accurate and complete information from his/her parent, employer and physician.

Items of special importance:

- Parent, employer and physician must sign and date the forms where the designated box (X) appears
- PLEDGE OF EMPLOYER section must be completed in its entirety (including TAX ID Number)
- PHYSICIAN'S CERTIFICATE must be completed in its entirety
- You must produce the original copy of your birth certificate if one is not on file at LHS

If time permits, your application for work permit will be processed electronically while you wait. Otherwise the application for work permit will be reviewed and signed to enable you to work. After the electronic filing has been completed, the form will be signed and mailed to your employer.

NOTE: You must complete this process every time you change jobs. If you are currently working more than one job, separate applications are required. Physical examinations are honored for one calendar year if you change employers within that period.
